

GPAD

WORKSHOPS

FALL 2014

GRADUATE PROFESSIONAL & ACADEMIC DEVELOPMENT WORKSHOPS

The Division of Graduate Studies is pleased to offer Graduate Professional and Academic Development (GPAD) workshops. The one-hour workshops are FREE for Kent State graduate students. Light refreshments will be provided at each session. Pre-registration is preferred.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 13: KSC 303

10-11am

RefWorks (Basic)

Paul Fehrmann, University Libraries

12-1pm

Launching Your Projects Professionally

Zach Mikrut, Blackstone LaunchPad

2-3pm

Using Your Online Presence to Get a Job

Hobson Hamilton, Career Services Center

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 14: KSC 303

10-11am

RefWorks (Advanced)

Paul Fehrmann, University Libraries

2-3pm

Résumés, CVs, and Cover Letters

Ryan McNaughton, Career Services Center

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 15: KSC 303

10-11am

Cloud Technology Tips and Tricks- Using Google Tools for Increased Efficiency

Tom Mahon, University Libraries

12-1pm

Statistical Consulting and Research Software Support

Kristin Yeager, University Libraries

2-3pm

Research Ethics and the IRB Application

Paulette Washko, Research and Sponsored Programs

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 16: KSC 303

10-11am

Overview of Library Research Management Tools

Paul Fehrmann and Michael Hawkins, University Libraries

2-3pm

Interviewing and Negotiating Your Job Offer

Hobson Hamilton, Career Services Center

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 17: KSC 303

10-11am

How to do a Literature Review

Paul Fehrmann and Clare Leibfarth, University Libraries

12-1pm

Grant Writing

Dr. John Gunstad, Department of Psychology

2-3pm

Searching for Grant Funding Opportunities

Dr. Mark van 't Hooft, Research and Sponsored Programs