

Does your son or daughter understand the difference between a friend and an acquaintance?
If not, the Boundaries Social Skills Group could be a great learning experience!

Kent State University Speech & Hearing Clinic in partnership with the Autism Society of Greater Akron presents...

BOUNDARIES SOCIAL SKILLS GROUP

a 7-week program for 10-15 year-olds

This group will focus on teaching key acceptable and safe interactions for the various levels of relationships (family, friend, acquaintance, etc.). Participants will learn to identify the characteristics of each relationship level and the types of behavior appropriate for that relationship level (hugs, handshakes, waves, etc.)

This seven-week course grew out of a collaboration between the Autism Society of Greater Akron and Kent State University. The program is designed for participants who can take turns, participate in small group settings, use a reliable form of language and show age-appropriate cognitive skills.

Weekly sessions are at the KSU Speech and Hearing Clinic
Mondays from 5:30pm-6:30pm, starts March 3rd

The cost is $250.

Please contact the Kent State Speech and Hearing Clinic at
