

COMMUNICATING WITH YOUR STUDENTS IN CANVAS

NOTIFICATIONS, INBOX, & ANNOUNCEMENTS

ABOUT CANVAS NOTIFICATIONS

Notifications are automatically triggered when you send a Canvas message or post an announcement. Each student (and instructor) can customize their Canvas notification settings as desired, so they are in control of if, and how often, they receive copies of Canvas messages or announcements in their Kent State email and/or via the mobile app.

By default, immediate email notifications are enabled for students for new Canvas Inbox messages and course announcements.

TIP: If you would like to receive copies of messages you send and announcements you post in your own Kent State email, enable the immediate email option for “Conversations Created by Me” and “Announcements Created by You” in your Canvas notification settings.

SENDING MESSAGES VIA CANVAS INBOX (CONVERSATIONS)

Use this chart to determine when you can send Canvas Inbox (also known as Conversations) messages to students in your courses and if notifications will be sent, based on your course publishing and participation settings.
