ARTICULATION AGREEMENT
By and Between
Cuyahoga Community College District
and
Kent State University
in
Hospitality Management

THIS ARTICULATION AGREEMENT (the "Agreement") is entered into on this day of , 2015 (the "Effective Date") by and between Cuyahoga Community College District (the "College"), with an address at 700 Carnegie Avenue, Cleveland, Ohio 44115-2878; and Kent State University ("Kent State"), with an address of Kent, Ohio 44242. The College is an institution of higher education established pursuant to Section 3354 of the Ohio Revised Code, and Kent State is an Ohio institution of higher learning and a member of the Ohio University System. The College and Kent State desire to enter into a contract pursuant to which students of the College would be eligible for articulated course credits at Kent State, according to the terms contained in this Agreement.

ACCORDINGLY, in consideration of the promises and mutual covenants contained in this Agreement, and of other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties agree as follows:

1. Description of Articulation Program.

- a. Definitions. Articulation Criteria and Articulation Benefits are defined in Attachment A.
- b. Articulation Benefits to Students. Kent State will provide the Articulation Benefits at no charge to past and present students of the College who meet the Articulation Criteria.
- c. Accreditation of the College. The College warrants that it is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission of the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools. The College will notify Kent State if such accreditation ceases to exist.
- d. Accreditation of Kent State. Kent State warrants that it is accredited by the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools. Kent State will notify the College if such accreditation ceases to exist.
- e. Admissions Processing. For those past or present students who meet Articulation Criteria 1(a-e), Kent State will consider their applications for admission in accordance with standard Kent State admission application evaluation criteria, while favorably recognizing students' accomplishments at the College.
- f. Non-Exclusivity. This Agreement is not exclusive, and either party may enter into similar agreements with any other party.

2. Term and Termination.

- a. Term. This Agreement will run from the Effective Date until the end of the last day of the Spring Term, 2019 academic term of the College, at which time this Agreement will automatically expire.
- b. Termination.
 - i. Either party may terminate this Agreement in the event of a material breach by the other party, effective upon the later date to occur of (i) the end of the next admissions application and review period of University, or (ii) the date that is 90 days after the notice that includes a description of the breach; provided in either case that the breaching party shall be allowed until said effective date to cure said breach, and if the breach is so cured the termination notice will be of no effect.
 - ii. Either party may terminate this Agreement at any time for any or no reason, effective one year after providing written notice of its intent to terminate to the other party.

- c. Post-Termination. Upon expiration or termination of this Agreement for any reason, College students previously accepted by or admitted to Kent State shall continue to receive the benefits contemplated by this Agreement.

3. Miscellaneous.

- a. Severability. If any Section or provision of this Agreement be held illegal, unenforceable, or in conflict with any law by a court of competent jurisdiction, such Section or provision of this Agreement shall be deemed severed from this Agreement and the validity of the remainder of this Agreement shall not be affected thereby.
- b. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Ohio applicable to contracts made and to be enforced wholly within Ohio.
- c. Jurisdiction; Venue. The parties to this Agreement each specifically consent to jurisdiction in Ohio in connection with any dispute between the parties arising out of this Agreement or pertaining to the subject matter hereof. Venue for any dispute between the parties arising out of this Agreement or pertaining to the subject matter hereof will be in the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Ohio or in the state courts of Ohio sitting in Cuyahoga County.
- d. Survival. Sections 2(c) and this Section 3 will survive termination or expiration of this Agreement.
- e. Notices. All notices or other written communications relating to termination, expiration, or any other legal matter relating to this Agreement will be effective when received in accordance with this Section 3(e) and must be given in writing by courier or reputable overnight delivery service, or by certified mail, return receipt requested, to either party at the following address (or to such other address as such party may substitute, by providing a written notice in the manner specified in this Section) with, in the case of the College, an additional copy addressed to "General Counsel":

For Kent State University:
Dr. Todd Diacon
Provost and Senior Vice President
Library, Executive Suite
Kent, OH 44242

For Cuyahoga Community College:
Lisa Williams
Vice President for Learning and Engagement
700 Carnegie Avenue
Cleveland, OH 44115

With a copy to:
Office of General Counsel and Legal Services
Cuyahoga community College
700 Carnegie Avenue
Cleveland, Ohio 44115-2878

- f. Waivers and Amendments. The waiver by either party of any provision of this Agreement on any occasion and upon any particular circumstance shall not operate as a waiver of such provision of this Agreement on any other occasion or upon any other circumstance. This Agreement may be modified or amended only via a writing signed by both parties.
- g. Assignment. Neither party may assign its rights or delegate its duties under this Agreement. Any attempted assignment or delegation in violation of this Section would be null and void.
- h. Complete Agreement; Integration. This Agreement contains the complete understanding of the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all other agreements, understandings, communications and promises of any kind, whether oral or written, between the parties with respect to such subject matter.
- i. Counterparts; Facsimile Signatures. This Agreement may be executed in multiple counterparts, all of which shall be originals and which together shall constitute a single agreement. For the purpose of interpreting this Agreement, facsimile signatures shall be considered equivalent to original signatures.

- j. Independent Contractors. The parties are independent contractors, and no agency, partnership, franchise, joint venture, or employment relationship is intended or created by this Agreement. Neither party shall make any commitment, or give the impression that it has authority to make any commitment, on behalf of the other party.
- k. Compliance with Laws. The parties will comply with all applicable laws and regulations in performing their obligations hereunder. When taking actions (or failing to act) in any way relating to this Agreement, each party agrees that it will not unlawfully discriminate against any person on the basis of race, sex, religion, disability, age, national origin, or ancestry, genetic information, military status, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, veteran status, pregnancy or color.
- l. Data Exchange. As permitted and in accordance with the requirements of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act, 20 U.S.C. §1232g, 34 C.F.R. Part 99, and other applicable privacy laws including without limitation, the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 and the federal regulations adopted to implement that Act (45 C.F.R. Parts 160 & 164 "the HIPAA Privacy and Security Rules"), collectively referred to as "HIPAA", and the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act, Public Law No: 106-102 the parties shall exchange information regarding student success related to this agreement. The College will provide upon request a directory list of graduates from the College following each graduation. Kent State will provide the College with information regarding the success of a student transferring to Kent State while utilizing the benefits of this agreement, provided that that student has provided written consent to Kent State to share such information beyond the available directory information. Kent State will participate in exchange of information with the College in all aspects, and during the duration, of the Cleveland Compact and the Ohio Board of Regents' Reverse Transfer Initiative. For research purposes, the following data will be requested from Kent State:
 - 1.) SSN (social security number for tacking purposes (if possible)
 - 2.) Currently enrolled (yes/no)
 - 3.) Major as of the most recent term enrolled
 - 4.) Hours earned (cumulative)
 - 5.) GPA (cumulative)
 - 6.) Degree completed (if completed)
 - 7.) Major for which degree was awarded (or expected)
 - 8.) Number of terms or credit hours required to complete degree

Institutional Research Departments of both institutions will be expected to meet within ninety days of signing of this agreement to determine a processes to share information.

- m. All promotion and advertising of the Articulation of the Agreement must conform to the provisions provided for in Attachment B.

INTENDING TO BE LEGALLY BOUND, by signing below, each party acknowledges its agreement with the terms and conditions of this Agreement and each signatory represents and warrants that he/she is authorized to sign on behalf of and to bind his/her party to all of the terms and conditions of this Agreement as of the Effective Date.

ATTACHMENT B

Marketing and Advertising Restrictions

Promotion of Partnership to Domestic and International Students

In order for Cuyahoga Community College and Kent State University to reach out to partners and the community effectively, it is important to monitor the impression conveyed through all forms of communication such as advertising, publications and signage. The sum total of all impressions generated by these communications must be effective and meaningful to the audiences with which the College and Kent State University communicate.

Therefore, the College Integrated Communications Department and the Kent State University's University Relations Department carefully monitor how the respective institutions are promoted. The Cuyahoga Community College logo and tagline are registered service marks. Use of the Cuyahoga Community College logo or tagline is prohibited without the express written permission of the College Integrated Communications Department. Likewise, use of the Kent State University logo (always containing wordmark, icon, and motto) is prohibited without the express written permission of the University Relations Department. Cuyahoga Community College and Kent State University will each designate a person authorized to review and approve all promotional materials created to promote any credit agreements.

1. Any and all promotional materials: written, presented verbally, and/or via mass media; must be reviewed and mutually agreed upon by both organizations prior to any distribution.
2. Use of materials representing the partnership: may use the Cuyahoga Community College District logo, the College name, or refer to the agreement; but, must prominently state (verbally or in bold print in a conspicuous location on printed materials) the following:
 - a. Degrees within the Agreement.
 - b. Additional average credit hours required to complete the degree.
3. Time limitations on articulation and award of credit must be prominently presented in all promotional materials.
