About the Annual Security Report

Ensuring the safety and security of students, employees, and visitors to campus is a priority at Kent State University. Please read the important information in this bulletin to learn more about the university's policies, procedures, programs, and statistics regarding safety and security, including valuable information about how to report and get help in the event safety is compromised.

The "Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act" (Clery Act) is a federal law originally enacted in 1990 amending the Higher Education Act of 1965. This law and its amendments require universities that receive federal funds to annually publish certain information regarding crimes that occur: on campus; on public property around campus; or on non-campus property owned or controlled by a student organization or by the university when used in support of the university's educational purposes and frequented by students.

The data in this report was compiled by the Geauga Public Safety Manager, in collaboration with several other university departments. The Public Safety Manager is responsible for collecting on-campus crime statistics, in addition to, securing statistics for public areas adjacent to the campus and for non-campus facilities controlled by the university in cooperation with the local law enforcement agencies surrounding the campus and alternate sites.

Statistics for public property immediately adjacent to the Kent State University Geauga campus are requested each year from the Geauga County Sheriff's Office.

This report, as well as reports specific to all of Kent State University's other campuses, is available online on the Public Safety website. Printed copies of this report can also be obtained from the Geauga facility Student Services Desk during regular office hours.

Reporting Criminal Offenses

Important Numbers

Important Numbers	Number
Police, Fire, Medical Emergencies (24 hours a day, 7 days a week)	911
Geauga County Sheriff Non-emergency (24/7)	440-286-1234
Village of Burton Fire Department	440-834-4416
Poison Control	800-222-1222
Campus Security Office	440-834-3780
Kent State ThreatLine (24/7)	330-672-SAFE http://www.kent.edu/threatline
Title IX Coordinator (reports of sexual harassment, sexual assault, dating/domestic violence, stalking; non-emergency)	330-672-2038
KSU Office of Student Conduct	330-672-4054

Students, faculty, staff, and the campus community are encouraged to report all crimes and public safety related incidents to Campus Security and/or the appropriate police agency in a timely manner. In some cases, one may be required to make such a report, even if the victim of the crime is unwilling or unable to make a report themselves (see the section below regarding confidential or anonymous reporting). Criminal activity or any other emergency on the Geauga Campus may be reported 24 hours a day, seven days a week by dialing 9-1-1 to reach the Geauga County Sheriff's Office.

Dialing 9-1-1 is the quickest way to access Emergency Medical Service provided by the Burton Fire Department. In addition to the all-purpose 9-1-1 emergency number, students and staff may contact Campus Security about non-emergency matters requiring assistance at 440-834-3780. General information and Lost and Found is available by calling the operator at 440-834-4187.

Kent State University Police Services has also established a violence prevention ThreatLine phone line and website available to all campuses. The ThreatLine does not replace 911 in the case of an immediate emergency, and it is not meant to be a replacement for filing an official report with law enforcement. The ThreatLine provides additional means to communicate information about threats of violence. The phone line and website are anonymous, toll free and available at any time of day. Individuals with information about violence or threats of violence on campus are encouraged to contact 330-672-SAFE (7233) or <http://www.kent.edu/threatline>. Reportable activities include: threats of physical harm, harassment, information regarding weapons or drugs on campus, or suspicious or disruptive behavior on campus.

Local Police Department

The Geauga Campus is served by the Geauga County Sheriff's Office. Criminal incidents are referred to the Geauga County Sheriff's Office, who has jurisdiction on the campus and responds to emergency calls. Reports of criminal activity are referred to the Geauga County Sheriff's Office for investigation.

Campus Security and Law Enforcement

Campus Security employs uniformed security officers who are available during various campus business hours and special campus events. The Geauga County Sheriff's Office assists the campus in handling all criminal and non-criminal incidents. Other state, county and city agencies may have concurrent jurisdiction on properties within their geographic areas that are owned or leased by the university. The Geauga Campus has no recognized student organizations with off campus locations.

The basic function and responsibility of Campus Security is to maintain the security of the designated areas of the campus (e.g., buildings and grounds) and report threatening or unusual conditions to the appropriate authority (The Police Department, Fire Department, and/or Paramedics). Campus Security patrols on foot and does not possess arrest power. Security has the authority to ask persons for identification and to determine whether individuals have lawful business at Kent State Geauga. The Campus Security Office maintains an excellent working relationship with the local police and the appropriate authority is contacted to provide investigative services when alleged criminal offenses occur on campus. There is no formal memorandum of understanding (MOU) in place with any of these agencies. The campus community is encouraged at all times to make an accurate and prompt reporting of all crimes that occur on campus to the appropriate law enforcement agencies and to the campus security office. Notify Campus Security for the following incidents on campus: automobile accidents, escort to vehicle or to campus buildings; illness or injuries; to jump start a vehicle; suspicious person or activities; or anytime you feel you need assistance. Please note: Campus Security will not open locked car doors or change tires.

Campus Security is also responsible for maintaining a Daily Crime Log of all alleged and reported campus crimes. This report is available during business hours at the front desk of Student Services in KSU Geauga Campus room 102 .

Office of Student Conduct

The goal of the Office of Student Conduct is to provide an atmosphere of safety and security for the university. Outlined in the Code of Student Conduct are policies and procedural guidelines that allow students, faculty, staff and visitors to feel safe and secure in their person and property while on campus. Such policies afford individuals a learning environment that is free from persecution and the threat of physical harm. Violations of the Code of Student Conduct may be reported directly to the Office of Student Conduct. The office provides due process hearings of alleged violations of such policies before independent adjudicators. The Office of Student Conduct will, upon written request, disclose to the alleged victim of a crime of violence, the results of any disciplinary hearing conducted by the university against a student who is the alleged perpetrator of the crime or offense. If the alleged victim is deceased as a result of the crime or offense, the results of the disciplinary hearing may be provided to the victim's next of kin, if so requested. If the complaint involves sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, or stalking, as discussed below, the results will be shared with the alleged victim without the need to make a request.

Kent State Office of Student Conduct: 595 Senhauser Dr., Kent, Oh 44242 at 330-672-4054, Email: studentconduct@kent.edu, <https://www.kent.edu/studentconduct>.

Confidential or Anonymous Reporting

The ThreatLine, described above, is a mechanism for reporting incidents anonymously. For confidential reporting, reports made to a university employee whose official responsibilities include providing psychological counseling may be kept confidential when the employee is functioning within the scope of their license or certification as a counselor (Counselors are, however, encouraged to provide information regarding reporting options and support resources). The university cannot promise that any other reports of crimes will remain confidential. The University's Administrative policy 5-16.1 requires all employees to notify police and the Title IX Coordinator of any gender/sexual harassment, sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, or stalking they are made aware of. Additionally, many employees are considered Campus Security Authorities under the Clery Act. A Campus Security Authority is any employee with significant responsibility for student and campus activities. These employees are expected to disclose to Police and Campus Security any Clery-reportable offenses brought to their attention. Furthermore, the Ohio Revised Code Section 2921.22 requires the reporting of all felonies to law enforcement.

Emergency Response, Notification, and Evacuation Procedures, and Timely Warnings

The goal of Kent State's emergency plans and procedures is to maximize human safety, minimize danger, preserve and protect property and critical infrastructure, and provide for responsible communications with the university community and the public during and after an emergency with the intent to restore normal activities. An emergency is any event or condition that presents: an imminent risk of death, serious injury or illness to the university community; suspension or significant disruption of university operations; significant physical or environmental damage; or significant threat to the university's financial well-being. Rather than establishing rigid parameters for qualifying an event as an emergency, this definition is intended to emphasize the actual and potential catastrophic effect, the imminent threat and seriousness inherent to emergencies. Other events may produce crises or harmful effects, but an emergency is distinguished by the severity of the threat and its effects, as well as the ongoing threat posed to the university community. The university notifies students, faculty, staff and the public concerning all emergencies, as well as other conditions, that present a potential threat to the public. This notification is communicated through various media and is made as soon as sufficient reliable information becomes available. The university strives to ensure that emergency notification is made responsibly and accurately, however, notification will not be delayed on this account unless notification would compromise efforts to assist victims or otherwise mitigate the emergency.

Emergency assistance should always be sought first by immediately dialing 9-1-1 from any campus phone. This call should then be followed by a report made directly to Campus Security at 440-834-3780 to permit proper and immediate notification to be initiated.

Persons authorized to carry out the notification process include Emergency Response Team Members, the Dean of the Geauga Campus, the Assistant Dean of the Geauga Campus or the Senior Facilities Manager at the Geauga Campus.

Once an initial and credible report has been received, notification will be made by available methods such as word-of-mouth, public address systems or other electronic means. Those notified shall include students, faculty, staff, and visitors located on campus at the time of the emergency, and those who may be in route to the campus, if possible. The University Communications & Marketing will be responsible for the dissemination of emergency information, when warranted, to the larger community using its existing methods for announcing and disseminating information to the general public.

If evacuation procedures need to be initiated, established protocol under the “Evacuation” procedures section outlined in the Facility Emergency Response plan made available to university employees will be followed. The Emergency Guide available to the public can be found at <http://www.kent.edu/geauga/campus-safety>.

Emergency Response Team

The Geauga Campus Emergency Response Team (ERT) consists of both administration and staff members with responsibilities involving the four phases of emergency management (Mitigation, Preparedness, Response and Recovery). The ERT is a key factor in formulating and leading the campus response to an emergency. In the event of an emergency, ERT members assess the situation and follow the procedures outlined in the Geauga Campus Emergency Response Plan. Procedures are reviewed annually and a test is conducted at least once a year with the ERT.

On September 19, 2019 from 10:00am-10:53am, the ERT conducted an announced tabletop exercise to test the Emergency Plan using a bomb threat scenario. In this exercise, the ERT focused on Mass Notification system activation, utilization of the Emergency Response plan, action options, action prioritization, feedback, and post exercise assessment.

Timely Warnings

The university is required to issue “timely warnings” when a crime is reported and considered a serious or continuing threat to the campus community. Geauga Campus Dean’s Office, Campus Security, and University Communications and Marketing collaborate to provide information to the community via the following, where applicable:

- Facility Public Address systems
- Flash ALERTS is Kent State’s official emergency text notification system to alert students, faculty and staff of critical information no matter what time it is or where they are in the world. Sign up for this service at www.kent.edu/flashalerts
- Emergency broadcast monitors, campus TV Monitors and or Bulletin Boards
- Mass email
- Press releases, advisories and/or official statements to media
- Interviews with newspapers, TV and radio stations that send reporters to campus.
- Updates on the Info 3000 message line (330-672-3000).
- Website posts to the university’s home page (www.kent.edu) and advisory page (www.kent.edu/advisory).

- Multiple social media platforms, including Facebook and Twitter

Security of Campus Facilities

Access to Campus Buildings

Academic buildings are open based on existing needs of the facility, as determined by the Senior Facilities Manager. Preauthorized fulltime faculty and staff are permitted access to any closed building at any time via key fob. Students must be accompanied by a faculty or staff member when in a closed building after regular campus hours. Each student and staff member has a university photo identification called a “FLASHcard” that may be requested by any security officer, police officer or university staff member to identify authorization for access. All outside building and maintenance contractors are required to register with the Business Office upon arriving and before working on campus. Access to buildings, offices and rooms by outside contractors is handled by staff escort or through the issuance and assigning of keys based upon need with designated access limitations.

All campus grounds are inspected regularly. Monthly inspections ensure that all fire equipment and exit lights are functional. Fire alarm testing exercises are conducted annually.

Crime Prevention and Awareness Programs

Kent State Geauga periodically offers programs and procedures to assist in the anticipation, recognition and appraisal of crime risks and so that actions may be initiated to remove or reduce crime risks. Students, faculty and staff are encouraged to take an active role in becoming educated about crime prevention and safety.

- Beyond Compliance BC training provides annual training for Kent State faculty and staff that focuses on key policies, laws and violence prevention designed to promote safe and enhance the culture of the university. All current Kent State University full-time and part-time staff must attend a minimum of two hours of Beyond Compliance (BC) Training for each fiscal year (July 1 – June 30). All full-time and part-time faculty are strongly encouraged to meet this standard as this initiative benefits all members of the university community. See some of the relevant online offerings below:

- Managing Difficult Behaviors
- Discrimination: Avoiding Discriminatory Practices
- Title IX Sexual Harassment Prevent for Employees
- Workplace Bullying: Awareness and Prevention
- Americans with Disabilities Act Overview
- Title IX and Gender Equity in Athletics
- The Division of Human Resources offers a number of facilitator-led and online security awareness programs year-round for employees, including:
 - A.L.I.C.E (Alert, Lockdown, Information, Counter and Evacuation) crisis training (90 minutes BC), offered by the Division of Human Resources in conjunction with the Community Resource Officer, designed to give participants insight and response options when encountering an active shooter. At least 30 sessions are offered to faculty, staff, and students each year. ALICE is now mandatory through the First Year Experience offerings. Across all seven campuses we train close to 7,000 (facilitator-led).

- Regional Security Officer's Annual Training. The Office of Compliance and EOAA provides an annual Title IX update on reportable events related to gender/sexual harassment, VAWA and Clery Act matters to promote campus accountability.
- There are four online courses that all New Employees are automatically enrolled:
 - Online Title IX and Sexual Violence Prevention for Employees, SafeColleges (BC 1 hr) – Title IX and Sexual Violence Prevention for Employees. This course covers such crucial topics as the prevalence of these crimes on campus, why people perpetrate, federal requirements for campuses, the power of primary prevention, sexual harassment and sexual discrimination, how to be an active
 - Online General Ethics in the Workplace, SafeColleges (BC 0.5 hr) – This course provides staff members with an overview of ethical standards at work. Common themes include describing ethical behavior with monetary practices, explaining ethical behavior with colleagues, and identifying several guidelines for appropriate ethical behavior.
 - Online Workplace Bullying: Awareness and Prevention, SafeColleges (BC 0.5 hr) – This course is designed to help staff members gain greater understanding of the nature of workplace bullying so that it may be prevented. It will review the impact of workplace bullying, identification of bullying behavior, and effective ways to deal with workplace bullying.

- Online Emergency Preparedness and Response Training, Kent State University (BC 1 hr) – Feeling prepared during urgent emergency situations can help people remain calm and enable them to respond more effectively. Take some time to consider how best to respond to emergencies by learning basic emergency guidelines and survival strategies in this online video training course. This course is designed to assist you in taking necessary precautions and exercising better judgment during potential emergency situations. Help yourself and possibly others when it can count the most by completing this Emergency Preparedness and Response training. By completing this course, participants will:
 - Become informed about the university's guidelines and processes regarding emergency preparedness
 - Learn strategies and best practices in responding to and surviving emergencies
- Increase confidence by enhancing knowledge about emergencies
- The HR Division offers a host of facilitator led courses and webinars:

- “Prevent Bullying in the workplace”
 - This 2-hour BC facilitator led workshop explores what this social issue is and how we can respond by improving workplace relationships, communication and promoting healthy campus expectations. Learners will be able to differentiate between bullying, harassment and normal workplace expectations, discover tactics to prevent workplace bullying, explore university-reporting procedures for bullying and care for yourself in the midst of bullying.
 - Campus Security Authority training by webinar to all employees, 1-hour BC. In collaboration with the Office of General Counsel and KSU Police Services, the Division offers annually.
 - “Principles of Conflict Management”
 - Guided by a self-assessment tool and practical exercises, in this 2-hour BC facilitator led course participants will discover their preferred conflict management style, learn how to distinguish between the different styles of conflict, gain practical experience in applying conflict styles and explore communication strategies.
 - “Dealing with Difficult Behaviors” - This BC facilitator led workshop focuses on identifying and addressing the most common difficult workplace behaviors. Participants explore ways to effectively deal with these behaviors and examine how they are personally impacted by the behaviors. Participants will understand the importance emotions and stress play in dealing with difficult encounters. They will also learn to identify trigger words, reframe reactions, learn to address the seven most common difficult behaviors and demonstrate how to give constructive feedback.
- Division of Diversity Equity and Inclusion
 - Micro-aggressions and Unconscious Bias (BC 2 hrs)
 - Safe Space Ally Training – English Dept (BC 2 hrs)
 - Providing Care to Diverse Populations (BC 2 hrs)
 - Cultural Competence Overview and Understanding Implicit Bias (BC 2 hrs)
 - Maximizing Your Impact: Exploring the Effects of Implicit Bias
 - Maximize Your Impact: Exploring Intercultural Competence and the Effects of Implicit Bias
 - What’s Your Green Dot? The Green Dot safety program is a bystander intervention program that gives participants the tools and resources to measurably reduce interpersonal violence in their community.
 - Step Up and Speak Out provides greater awareness of mental health concerns, including risk factors for suicide. This suicide and violence prevention campaign represents a collaborative effort of Kent State University Psychological Services, University Health Services, the Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs, the Office of the Dean of Students, and Police Services and aims to support individuals in need by educating University community members on protocols and resources designed to assist in disruptive situations or with distressed individuals. Visit <http://www.kent.edu/stepupspeakout> for more information, including campus-specific resources. Resource materials are also available around campus.

Risk Reduction Strategies

- Lock your car when parking in a campus lot. Do not leave valuables in plain view in your console or on the seat, i.e. cell phones, loose change, purses, books or anything of value.
- Don't leave books, purses, laptop computers or book bags unattended in public places including the library, bookstore, the gym, study lounges and computer labs.
- Mark your books so you are able to identify them if they are stolen.
- Be alert to your environment at all times. Always know where you are and where you could go for help if you were to need it. Stay in areas that are well lit and populated. Consider varying your routine, particularly when walking to your car, and avoid putting both headphones in your ears. This will allow you to be more aware of your surroundings, especially if you are walking alone.
- After evening classes, walk in pairs to your cars; if you cannot find a friend, contact security for an escort.
- Don't hesitate to report unusual behavior to Campus Security and notify the appropriate personnel if there is any breach of security around campus.
- Don't rely on rumors. Check legitimate news sources for correct information.
- When you go to a social gathering, go with a group of friends, check in with each other throughout the night, and leave together. Don't be afraid to let your friend know you're worried about their safety.
- Know what and how much you are drinking. If you choose to drink, be sure you watch it being poured and keep it with you. Avoid taking drinks from large punch bowls or other open containers where you don't know what was mixed in or how much.
- Carry your cell and some cash. Before you leave your housing, make sure you have your phone and that it is charged. Also, it is important to carry some cash in case you need cab/bus fare or gas for your car.
- Trust your gut. If you feel unsafe or uneasy in a situation, trust your instincts.

Policies and Programming Regarding Sexual Assault, Dating Violence, Domestic Violence, and Stalking

Kent State University Policies, Title IX, and VAWA

Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX) prohibits discrimination on the basis of gender in education programs or activities operated by recipients of federal financial assistance, such as Kent State University. Sexual harassment, which includes sexual assault, is a form of gender discrimination and can limit a student’s ability to participate in, or benefit from, the university’s programs. Administrative policy 5-16.2 reflects Title IX, and strictly prohibits unlawful discrimination and harassment on the basis of gender.

The Violence Against Women Reauthorization Act of 2013 (VAWA) amended the Clery Act to require campus programs regarding prevention, awareness, and response to reports of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking. VAWA also requires reporting of crime statistics for those offenses, which are also prohibited by university policy.

The university’s policies regarding prohibition of sexual harassment including sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking, as well as procedures for filing and investigating complaints of such offenses, can be found in Chapter 5, at 5-16, 5-16.1 and 5-16.2 of the KSU Policy Register.

The Code of Student Conduct is also a useful resource, as it contains information regarding prohibited student conduct, the student conduct adjudication process and the rights of students (including the rights of victims of sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking). It may be found on the Office of Student Conduct website.

Definitions

The chart below shares University policy definitions, as well as Ohio criminal definitions. When you file a complaint with the university’s Title IX Coordinator, university policy definitions will apply. The table below contains only portions of the definitions or laws, shortened for inclusion in this table; for complete versions, please see the notated policy or Revised Code citation. Additionally, other Ohio Revised Code sections may apply. The following is provided for informational purposes only and is not intended to serve as legal advice or guidance.

University Policy 5-16.2 Definition	Felony or misdemeanor crimes of violence committed by a current or former spouse or intimate partner of the victim, by a person with whom the victim shares a child in common, by a person who is cohabitating with or has cohabitated with the victim as a spouse or intimate partner, by a person similarly situated to a spouse of the victim under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction, or by any other person against an adult or youth victim who is protected from that person's acts under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction.
Ohio Revised Code Definition	ORC §2919.25: (A) No person shall knowingly cause or attempt to cause physical harm to a family or household member. (B) No person shall recklessly cause serious physical harm to a family or household member.

	(C) No person, by threat of force, shall knowingly cause a family or household member to believe that the offender will cause imminent physical harm to the family or household member.
Term:	Dating violence
University Policy 5-16.2 Definition	Violence committed by a person who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim. The existence of such a relationship shall be determined based on a consideration of the length of the relationship, the type of relationship, and the frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship.
Ohio Revised Code Definition	Not specifically defined in the Ohio Revised Code
Term:	Consent
University Policy 5-16.2 Definition	An action defined as the voluntary, unambiguous and uncoerced agreement to participate in an act, the nature and full extent of which is understood by all parties. Silence or lack of resistance cannot be the sole factor in determining consent. Consent may be given verbally or nonverbally. All parties are responsible for confirming that their counterpart’s consent is maintained throughout the act and is present before engaging in a new act. A person may be incapable of giving consent due to physical incapacitation, physical or mental disability, threat, coercion, the influence of alcohol or drugs, or age.

University Reporting, Investigation, and Disciplinary Resources:

Title IX Coordinator: The Title IX Coordinator is responsible for coordinating the university's response to allegations of sexual harassment, sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking from students, staff, and visitors to campus. This includes taking prompt, impartial and effective action to stop any harassment or violence, prevent its occurrence, and remedy its effects. The Title IX Coordinator has appointed Deputy Title IX Coordinators, who are responsible for investigating reports. As part of an investigation, remedial measures may be available to help stop any alleged harassment and ameliorate its effects. Possible remedial measures can include, but are not limited to, changes in:

academic schedule, room assignment, transportation, working situations, and issuing “No Contact Orders”, if requested and appropriate. These measures are available regardless of whether the victim reports the crime to law enforcement. All allegations of sexual harassment, sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking will be investigated to the extent consented to by the complainant. If the accused party is a student, a student conduct hearing may be held to determine whether policy 5-16.2 was violated and set appropriate sanctions (see next paragraph). If the accused is an employee, the Title IX Coordinator or Deputy Title IX Coordinator will use a preponderance of the evidence standard to determine whether the policy was violated and recommend appropriate sanctions. If the accused is a visitor to campus, a hearing may be held in accordance with the Persona Non Grata policy, 5-12.7. The full procedure for reporting and investigating sexual harassment, sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking is in the University Policy Register at 5-16.2. To report these offenses, contact:

Tiffany Murray, J.D., Director, Gender Equity & Title IX Coordinator
 Heer Hall, Phone: 330-672-2038,
 Email: titleix@kent.edu
 Website: www.kent.edu/hr/title-ix

Office of Student Conduct: Alleged violations involving KSU students, employees, and visitors to campus must be reported to the Title IX Coordinator for investigation and may result in a conduct hearing before the university’s Office of Student Conduct if the accused person is a student. The accuser and accused are entitled to have an advisor of their choice present during a disciplinary proceeding, as well as accommodations such as the option to participate via electronic means. A representative from the Office of Compliance (Title IX) will be present at the hearing to share any pertinent information from the investigation with the hearing panel. The hearing panel will use a preponderance of the evidence standard in making its determination (i.e. it is more likely than not that the offense occurred, based on the evidence presented). Hearing panel members, the Title IX Coordinator and Deputies, and officials involved in investigating and administering these procedures are trained annually on these issues, as well as how to conduct an investigation or hearing process that protects the safety of victims and promotes accountability. Both parties will be informed, in writing, of the outcome of the proceeding and appeal options, and will be notified if the other party appeals and if there is a change in results or final outcome. Possible sanctions following the hearing include, but are not limited to, disciplinary probation, suspension and dismissal.

Confidentiality: The university will keep all information pertaining to an investigation as confidential as possible. If the complainant requests that their information not be shared with the accused, the university will honor such a request in so far as is compliant with the law. However, such a request may limit the extent to which the university is able to investigate and respond to the complaint. If the complainant wishes to file a formal complaint with the university, the complainant’s name and any written statements submitted will be disclosed to the accused. If the university determines that the safety of the community is at risk, certain confidential information may need to be shared in order to protect the university community. All university employees, with the exception of licensed counselors and medical personnel, are required to report to the Title IX Coordinator any sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking they are aware of involving the university community. Ohio law also requires that all felonies be reported to the police.

FERPA and Ohio Public Records Law: Ohio Revised Code Section 149.43 defines a public record as "any document, device, or item, regardless of physical form or characteristic... created or received by or coming under the jurisdiction of any public office of the state... which serves to document the organization, functions, policies, decisions, procedures, operations, or other activities of the office." ORC 149.43 further requires that "upon request, a public office or person responsible for public records shall make copies of the requested public record available at cost and within a reasonable period of time." Many of the records kept by the university meet this definition, including many student conduct records. However, the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA, 20 USC §1232g) prohibits the release of educational records without the permission of the student, subject to several statutory exceptions. An exception exists for releasing the results of a student conduct hearing regarding a violation that could be considered a crime of violence or non-forcible sex offense. The university may release the final results of the conduct process to the victim of the alleged action without permission from the accused student, and regardless of the outcome of the process. If the accused student is found responsible for a policy violation that may also be considered a crime of violence or non-forcible sex offense, the university can release the final results of the conduct process to anyone who requests it. The information released may only include the name of the student found in violation, the policy violated, and the sanction imposed.

Bystander Intervention:

The Green Dot Strategy is a bystander approach for the prevention of power-based personal violence that relies on the power of cultural and peer influence. The strategy engages everyone in the community as agents of change to visibly reduce the number of incidents of violence. There are two main components to the approach: a skills-based workshop, and a social marketing campaign. The one-day workshop engages participants through awareness, education and skill practice that seek to establish intolerance of violence as a norm and intervene in high risk situations, resulting in an ultimate reduction of violence. The goal is to equip participants with lots of options for bystander action from directly intervening, to distracting those involved as well as delegating to get help from someone else or the police all in an effort to increase action in the community. By doing so, new norms are introduced that move individuals from passive agreement that violence is wrong, to active intervention. Visit www.kent.edu/greendot for more information, and to register for Green Dot training.

Programming

- Center for Sexual and Relationship Violence Support Services (SRVSS): The SRVSS Office works with the greater university community to provide a comprehensive, collaborative, and victim-centered response to sexual assault, relationship violence and stalking that includes prevention, education, and response/recovery components. The responsibility of the SRVSS Office is to educate the university community, to provide anti-violence programming and support services, and to encourage all community members to speak out when witnessing violence. Specific educational programs of the SRVSS Office include:

- Informational website for faculty, staff, and students who may be dealing with sexual assault, relationship violence, and/or stalking and are in need of services, education, or support.
- Kent State Stands Up – campaign for raising awareness, sharing resources and promoting bystander action.
- Green Dot, a bystander prevention strategy, which focuses on addressing power-based personal violence (including sexual assault, relationship violence and stalking) and relies on the power of culture and peer influence as an agent of change in visibly reducing the number of incidents of violence.
- Individualized workshops or training for student groups and organizations, academic and student services, university departments, faculty and staff. Topics include consent, healthy relationships, bystander action, sexual assault, intimate partner violence and stalking.
- Awareness month programming for relationship abuse, stalking and sexual assault. Events may include:
- “Take Back the Night” annual march against sexual violence, which is followed by a name burning and candlelight vigil in support of survivors of sexual violence.
- Engaging Men initiatives: In collaboration with members of the campus community, an annual walk is held. The purpose of the walk is to create a united gender movement where men will be a part of the solution to ending sexualized violence.
- The Clothesline Project provides survivors and loved ones of those who have been impacted or killed by sexual violence to visually share their stories through decorated t-shirts. The Clothesline Project is displayed at various times throughout the year.
- “Not Anymore” is an online module that is completed by all incoming students. “Not Anymore” is an interactive experience that will share information about sex in college, partying smart, sexual violence and healthy relationships.
- Tabling information. SRVSS participates in several wellness and outreach fairs each year including Blastoff, Black Squirrel Fest, Graduate Student Orientation and International Student Orientation.
- Active social media with resource sharing and educational information.
- All Kent State University employees are required to complete two hours of Beyond Compliance Training. The Division of Human Resources offers “Title IX and Sexual Harassment Prevention for Employees”, an online Title IX training course available for all full and part-time faculty and staff to ensure they are fully up to date and aware of the relevant laws and university policies related to discrimination, harassment, violence prevention as well as reporting obligations. This training is designed to help employees understand sexual misconduct, including sexual harassment and sexual violence, and encourage reporting. This course is also a part of orientation for new employees. The online process has made the training more accessible and convenient across the eight campuses. Although Human Resources offers a blend of options for Title IX training, we are requiring one of the two Beyond Compliance hours be Title IX training.

- The Office of Compliance, Equal Opportunity, and Affirmative Action (EOAA) provides information, consultation and guidance to the Kent State community on affirmative action, equal opportunity, Title IX, Violence Against Women Reauthorization Act (VAWA), harassment prevention, and discrimination issues. The Office of Compliance, EOAA provides training and workshops, including the following:
 - Responsible for a campaign including signage, promotional materials and other medium emphasizing reporting options.

- Monthly Title IX facilitator led workshops for faculty, staff and students
- Informational website with information regarding who to contact if faced with sexual assault, intimate partner violence, or stalking along with gender discrimination policy
- In March, April, October and November 2019, KSU Geauga partnered with Human Resources to provide facilitator led Title IX Training, and/or Open Enrollment & Wellness Fair and/or KSU Appreciates You events at the Geauga Campus in Burton. Title IX information relating to sexual assault, intimate partner violence, stalking and reporting obligations was provided at these events.

Drug, Alcohol, and Substance Abuse Policies & Programming

Kent State students are expected to follow local, state and federal laws regarding the possession, use and sale of alcohol. Use of alcohol is permitted only by persons of legal drinking age and only under the express consent of authorized University personnel. University policies governing the use and possession of alcohol are found at 4-04, 4-04.1, and 4-04.101 in Chapter 4 of the Policy Register.

The university has adopted a zero tolerance stance concerning the referral and adjudication of cases involving the possession, use and/or sale of illegal substances.

The Code of Student Conduct governs student violations of university alcohol and controlled substance policies. Kent State may notify parents of students who are under 21 years of age who have been found responsible for an alcohol or controlled substance violation. Possible sanctions may include referral to outside counseling agencies and stipulations to attend drug or alcohol abuse education programs.

Campus and Community Drug & Alcohol Abuse Resources

- The CARE Team at Kent State University Geauga exists to gather isolated concerns in one location to be examined as possible patterns of behavior and to coordinate a supportive, positive outreach toward students with concerning behavior when appropriate. The cross-functional team prefers to take a proactive approach, focusing on early interventions toward distressing student behavior in an attempt to change the behavior before the situation escalates.

Programming

- The Alcohol and Other Drugs Task Force is a group that fosters campus and community collaboration aimed at reducing the negative impact of alcohol and other drug use in our community. This group makes recommendations for policy and program changes, serves as the lead campus group to collaborate with community resources to reduce alcohol and other drug-related problems, coordinates the institutional alcohol and other drugs biennial review, and supports efforts of the community to reduce high-risk alcohol and other drug-related negative behavior on and off campus.
- Division of Human Resources: IMPACT Employee Assistance and Work/Life Program offers counseling services by licensed professionals to assist employees with problems such as stress, anxiety, depression, substance abuse, and more.
- In accordance with the Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act, the University's alcohol and drug abuse programs, standards of conduct, legal sanctions, penalties, and health risks can be accessed at <http://www.kent.edu/studentaffairs/drug-free-schools-and-communities-act>. The Drug Abuse and Alcohol Prevention Program information is updated each semester and posted on the same website.
