

CIS STUDENT ENRICHMENT FUND

PH.D. STUDENT SUPPORT

CIS SUPPORT FOR PH.D. STUDENTS

This award is offered on a competitive basis by the Center for Information Systems in the College of Business Administration at Kent State University. It is intended to encourage Ph.D. students to engage in research and other professional activities in the area of Information Systems.

- PURPOSE: To provide financial support for Ph.D. students to engage in professional activities such as conducting research or attending conferences
- AWARD AMOUNT: $1,000 (1 available)
- ELIGIBILITY: Ph.D. students in Management Systems with a concentration in Information Systems
- PROCEDURE: Interested students may apply by submitting (via e-mail to rsellers@kent.edu) a brief statement (e.g., a few paragraphs) that includes a description of the proposed professional activity, a detailed budget, a summary of the expected benefits, and documentation of seeking funding from other sources
- SCHEDULE: The application deadline is February 15 for Spring semester and September 15 for Fall semester
- If selected to receive an award, you will be notified by e-mail and expected to attend a Center for Information Systems meeting in order to be recognized
- No later than December 31 of the year following the award recipient must submit a completed expense form and all receipts to:
- Ms. Terri Harmon
M&IS Department Office
Room A-432 College of Business Administration
Kent State University
Kent, Ohio 44242
- OTHER CONSIDERATIONS: The Scholarship Committee reserves the right to select the award recipient and award amount however they deem appropriate