

Tuition Insurance

Offered through GradGuard

What does tuition insurance do?

- It supplements Kent State University's tuition credit policy by reimbursing students and families, for tuition, room, board, and other fees in cases where a student must withdraw

What are some withdrawal reasons covered by the tuition insurance policy?

- Covered illness or injury, i.e. mononucleosis or a severe head injury
- Covered chronic illness, i.e. diabetes or an autoimmune disorder
- Covered mental health disorder, i.e. severe depression or anxiety
- Death of insured student
- Death of tuition payer

How much does it cost?

- The cost for the plan is $125 per $10,000 in coverage
- Coverage is purchased each semester

How do I enroll?

- For more information about the plan please check out our new tuition insurance website at <https://www.kent.edu/bursar/tuition-insurance>

Interested students have until the first day of classes to sign up for a plan for fall