VII. GRADUATE COURSEWORK:

The MA degree requires a minimum of 32 credit hours, including 6 credit hours of thesis, or 3 credit hours of project or internship if those options are chosen. (For example, if you choose the thesis option you will have a total of 26 credit hours for courses and 6 credit hours of thesis for 32 credit hours total.)

Required courses include COMM 65000, COMM 65652 and COMM 65020. A univariate statistics course is highly recommended. Incoming teaching assistants are required to take COMM 65794 (Teaching College Communication). Please review the Graduate Student Handbook for more information about program requirements.

Please list all courses you have taken and those you will take, both inside and outside of the School of Communication Studies. List the number of credit hours for each course, its name, instructor, the semester and year taken (or will take) and the grade received if you have completed it.
