Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45 (c), (d), (e), and (g) (Effective 12/1/13)

(c) Place of Compliance.

- (1) For a Trial, Hearing, or Deposition. A subpoena may command a person to attend a trial, hearing, or deposition only as follows:
- (A) within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; or
- (B) within the state where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person, if the person
 - (i) is a party or a party's officer; or
- (ii) is commanded to attend a trial and would not incur substantial expense.

(2) For Other Discovery. A subpoena may command:

- (A) production of documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things at a place within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; and
 - (B) inspection of premises at the premises to be inspected.

(d) Protecting a Person Subject to a Subpoena; Enforcement.

(1) Avoiding Undue Burden or Expense; Sanctions. A party or attorney responsible for issuing and serving a subpoena must take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to the subpoena. The court for the district where compliance is required must enforce this duty and impose an appropriate sanction—which may include lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fees—on a party or attorney who fails to comply.

(2) Command to Produce Materials or Permit Inspection.

- (A) Appearance Not Required. A person commanded to produce documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things, or to permit the inspection of premises, need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless also commanded to appear for a deposition, hearing, or trial.
- (B) Objections. A person commanded to produce documents or tangible things or to permit inspection may serve on the party or attorney designated in the subpoena a written objection to inspecting, copying, testing, or sampling any or all of the materials or to inspecting the premises—or to producing electronically stored information in the form or forms requested. The objection must be served before the earlier of the time specified for compliance or 14 days after the subpoena is served. If an objection is made, the following rules apply:
- (i) At any time, on notice to the commanded person, the serving party may move the court for the district where compliance is required for an order compelling production or inspection.
- (ii) These acts may be required only as directed in the order, and the order must protect a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer from significant expense resulting from compliance.

(3) Quashing or Modifying a Subpoena.

- (A) When Required. On timely motion, the court for the district where compliance is required must quash or modify a subpoena that:
 - (i) fails to allow a reasonable time to comply;
- (ii) requires a person to comply beyond the geographical limits specified in Rule 45(c);
- (iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter, if no exception or waiver applies; or
 - (iv) subjects a person to undue burden.
- (B) When Permitted. To protect a person subject to or affected by a subpoena, the court for the district where compliance is required may, on motion, quash or modify the subpoena if it requires:
- (i) disclosing a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information; or

- (ii) disclosing an unretained expert's opinion or information that does not describe specific occurrences in dispute and results from the expert's study that was not requested by a party.
- (C) Specifying Conditions as an Alternative. In the circumstances described in Rule 45(d)(3)(B), the court may, instead of quashing or modifying a subpoena, order appearance or production under specified conditions if the serving party:
- (i) shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship; and
 - (ii) ensures that the subpoenaed person will be reasonably compensated.

(e) Duties in Responding to a Subpoena.

- (1) Producing Documents or Electronically Stored Information. These procedures apply to producing documents or electronically stored information:
- (A) Documents. A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents must produce them as they are kept in the ordinary course of business or must organize and label them to correspond to the categories in the demand.
- (B) Form for Producing Electronically Stored Information Not Specified. If a subpoena does not specify a form for producing electronically stored information, the person responding must produce it in a form or forms in which it is ordinarily maintained or in a reasonably usable form or forms.
- (C) Electronically Stored Information Produced in Only One Form. The person responding need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.
- (D) Inaccessible Electronically Stored Information. The person responding need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or for a protective order, the person responding must show that the information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2)(C). The court may specify conditions for the discovery.

(2) Claiming Privilege or Protection.

- (A) Information Withheld. A person withholding subpoenaed information under a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial-preparation material must;
 - (i) expressly make the claim; and
- (ii) describe the nature of the withheld documents, communications, or tangible things in a manner that, without revealing information itself privileged or protected, will enable the parties to assess the claim.
- (B) Information Produced. If information produced in response to a subpoena is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has; must not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved; must take reasonable steps to retrieve the information if the party disclosed it before being notified; and may promptly present the information under seal to the court for the district where compliance is required for a determination of the claim. The person who produced the information must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

(g) Contempt.

The court for the district where compliance is required—and also, after a motion is transferred, the issuing court—may hold in contempt a person who, having been served, fails without adequate excuse to obey the subpoena or an order related to it.

SCHEDULE OF DOCUMENTS TO BE PRODUCED

DEFINITIONS

- 1. The following rules of construction shall apply to all document requests: (a) the terms "ALL" and "EACH" shall be construed as all and each; and (b) the use of the singular form of any word includes the plural and vice versa.
- 2. "DOCUMENT" and "DOCUMENTS" shall mean and include all "writings," "recordings" or "photographs" as those terms are defined in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 34 and Rule 1001 of the Federal Rules of Evidence. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the term "DOCUMENTS" includes both hard copy DOCUMENTS as well as electronically stored data files including e-mail, instant messaging, shared network files and databases. With respect to electronically stored data, "DOCUMENTS" also includes, without limitation, any data on magnetic or optical storage media (e.g., servers, storage area networks, hard drives, backup tapes, CDs, DVDs, thumb flash drives, floppy disks or any other type of portable storage device, etc.) stored as an "active" or backup file, in its native format.
- 3. The terms "YOU" and "YOUR" mean the responding party, its predecessors, successors, subsidiaries, departments, divisions, joint ventures and/or affiliates, including, without limitation, any organization or entity which the responding party manages or controls, together with all present and former directors, officers, employees, agents, representatives, consultants or any persons acting or purporting to act on behalf of the responding party.
- 4. The "SPORTS AT ISSUE" means NCAA Division I (a) Football Bowl Subdivision ("FBS") football; (b) men's basketball; and (c) women's basketball.
- 5. Unless otherwise noted, the term "RELEVANT TIME PERIOD" means the period from January 1, 2008 through the present.

INSTRUCTIONS

- 1. This subpoena and any and all DOCUMENTS produced in response thereto are governed by a court-approved "Stipulated Protective Order Regarding Confidentiality of Documents and Materials," dated January 15, 2015 (the "Protective Order"). A copy of the Protective Order is attached. The Protective Order ensures that information meeting the standards of confidential or personally private information shall be maintained as confidential by the requesting parties and all receiving parties, and shall not be disclosed to anyone outside of the litigation absent court order. DOCUMENTS responsive to this subpoena that contain such confidential or personally private information may be marked "Confidential" pursuant to paragraph seven of the Protective Order, or "Highly Confidential Counsel Only" pursuant to paragraph eight of the Protective Order, as appropriate, but shall otherwise be produced in complete, unredacted form.
- 2. These requests call for the production of all responsive DOCUMENTS that are within the possession, custody or control of YOU or in the possession, custody, or control of YOUR present or former employees, representatives, agents, and persons consulted or otherwise available to YOU.
- 3. If any responsive DOCUMENT was but no longer is in YOUR possession, custody, or control, state the reason it is no longer in YOUR possession, custody, or control (i.e., lost, missing, destroyed, transferred, disposed of) and explain the circumstances surrounding the disposition of the DOCUMENT and the date it occurred.
- 4. If any DOCUMENT covered by these requests is withheld by reason of a claim of attorney-client privilege, attorney work product protection, or any other privilege or protection, please furnish a log providing the following information with respect to each such withheld DOCUMENT: date, author, recipients, general subject matter sufficient to make a prima facie determination whether the asserted privilege has been properly invoked, and the legal basis upon which the DOCUMENT has been withheld.

- 5. If any DOCUMENT is redacted on the basis of privacy, please identify such in the redaction or by furnishing a log providing the following information with respect to each redaction: date, author, recipients, and type of information withheld on the basis of privacy.
- 6. With respect to any DOCUMENT maintained or stored electronically, please harvest it in a manner that maintains the integrity and readability of all data, including all metadata.
- 7. Please produce ALL DOCUMENTS maintained or stored electronically in native, electronic format with ALL relevant metadata intact. Encrypted or password-protected DOCUMENTS should be produced in a form permitting them to be reviewed. YOU are also requested to immediately meet and confer regarding the manner in which YOU shall produce DOCUMENTS stored electronically in order for the parties to try and reach agreement in this regard and avoid any unnecessary expense.
- 8. To the extent responsive DOCUMENTS reside on databases and such other systems and files, YOU are requested to produce the relevant database in useable form and/or permit access for inspection, review and extraction of responsive information.
- 9. These requests shall be deemed continuing so as to require further and supplemental production in accordance with Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(e).

DOCUMENT REQUESTS

Request No. 1:

All "squad list forms" prepared by YOUR institution during the RELEVANT TIME PERIOD for the SPORTS AT ISSUE. See, e.g., 2015-16 NCAA Division I Manual, Bylaw 15.5.11.2 ("Squad-List Form. The institution shall compile a list of the squad members in each sport on the first day of competition and shall indicate thereon the status of each member in the categories listed (see Bylaw 12.10.2)") (emphasis in original).

Request No. 2:

All "supplementary forms" prepared by YOUR institution during the RELEVANT TIME PERIOD in connection with any "squad list form" for the SPORTS AT ISSUE. See, e.g., NCAA Division I Manual, Bylaw 15.5.11.2.1(b) ("A supplementary form may be filed to add names of persons not initially on the squad or to indicate a change of status.").

Request No. 3:

DOCUMENTS sufficient to identify, by person's name and sport, (1) every college athlete in the SPORTS AT ISSUE at YOUR institution that received any distribution from the NCAA's Student Assistance Fund, Student-Athlete Opportunity Fund, or Special Assistance Fund during the RELEVANT TIME PERIOD (whether directly from YOUR institution, the NCAA, and/or any NCAA member Conference); (2) the precise source and amount of each such distribution to that college athlete; and (3) the purposes(s) for which the funds were requested and provided.

Request No. 4:

DOCUMENTS sufficient to identify, by person's name and sport, (1) every college athlete in the SPORTS AT ISSUE at YOUR institution that received any athletics-related or non-athletics related financial aid during the RELEVANT TIME PERIOD; (2) the precise amounts and sources of each distribution of financial aid; and (3) the bases and calculations for each individual college athlete's calculated cost of attendance and any cost of attendance payments, whether athletics-related or not.

Request No. 5:

DOCUMENTS sufficient to show YOUR institution's basis for calculating the amounts for each component of athletics-related financial aid in the SPORTS AT ISSUE during the RELEVANT TIME PERIOD, for example, tuition, fees, room, board, books, and cost-of-attendance payments. See, e.g., 2015-16 NCAA Division I Manual, Bylaw 15.02.5 ("A full grant-in-aid is financial aid that consists of tuition and fees, room and board, books, and other expenses related to attendance at the institution up to the cost of attendance established pursuant to Bylaws 15.02.2 and 15.02.2.1").

In order to protect confidential information obtained from or disclosed by the respective parties or nonparties in connection with this litigation and pursuant to the Court's authority under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(c) and Federal Rule of Evidence 502, the parties submit as follows:

PURPOSES AND LIMITATIONS

- Disclosure and discovery activity in these actions are likely to involve production 1. of trade secrets, confidential, proprietary, or private information for which special protection from public disclosure and from use for any purpose other than prosecuting this litigation would be warranted. The unrestricted disclosure of such information would cause undue damage to the parties and their businesses or to third parties. The disclosure of trade secrets, proprietary information, and confidential business and financial information would harm the disclosing party if it was made known to the disclosing party's competitors, and in some cases, could violate the confidentiality agreements between the disclosing party and third parties or parties to those agreements. Disclosure of private information and educational information is also governed by statute and other laws such that disclosure of that information may be inconsistent with those statutes and other laws. Accordingly, the parties in these actions hereby stipulate to and petition the Court to enter the following Protective Order. The parties acknowledge that this Order does not confer blanket protections on all disclosures or responses to discovery, and that the protections outlined herein extend only to the limited information or items that are entitled to treatment as confidential under applicable legal principles. This Protective Order is, therefore, entered into pursuant to Rule 26(c) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure to protect information entitled to be kept confidential.
- The parties further acknowledge, as set forth in Paragraph 17, below, that this 2. Protective Order creates no entitlement to file confidential information under seal; the relevant court rules (e.g., Civil Local Rule 79-5) set forth the procedures that must be followed, and reflect the standards that will be applied, when a party seeks permission from the Court to file material under seal.
 - 3. Documents and other information produced by the parties or nonparties in connection with these actions shall be used solely for purposes of prosecuting, defending or attempting to settle these actions, whether such information is designated "Confidential" or "Highly Confidential – Counsel Only" or not.

- 4. The protections outlined in this Order apply only to information appropriately designated as "Confidential" or "Highly Confidential Counsel Only" pursuant to the terms of this Order (collectively, the "Protected Information").
- 5. The parties have reviewed the Case Management Order (Dkt. 132), which includes Judge Wilken's Civil Pretrial Order, and Magistrate Judge Nathanael M. Cousins' Civil Standing Order. The parties represent that nothing contained in this Protective Order conflicts with any of the provisions in those orders.

NONDISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED INFORMATION

- 6. Except with the prior written consent of the party or non-party originally designating a document, discovery response, or deposition transcript (the "Disclosing Party"), Protected Information may not be disclosed to any person except as specifically authorized herein.
- 7. Any Disclosing Party may designate as Confidential (by stamping the relevant page or portion "Confidential") any document, response to discovery, or deposition transcript which that Disclosing Party considers in good faith to contain information involving trade secrets, proprietary information, confidential business, educational or financial information, private information or other information subject to protection under California or federal law, or another applicable legal standard ("Confidential Information"). Where a document or response consists of more than one page, the first page and each page on which Confidential Information appears shall be so designated. Confidential Information may only be disclosed to those persons set forth in Paragraph 12 below.
- 8. Any Disclosing Party may designate as Highly Confidential (by stamping the relevant page or portion "Highly Confidential Counsel Only") any document, response to discovery, or deposition transcript which that Disclosing Party considers in good faith to contain Confidential Information, the disclosure of which to another party or non-party would create a substantial risk of serious harm that could not be avoided by less restrictive means ("Highly Confidential – Counsel Only Information"). Where a document or response consists of more than one page, the first page and each page on which Highly Confidential Information appears shall be so designated. Highly Confidential – Counsel Only Information may only be disclosed to those persons set forth in Paragraph 13 below.

- 9. A Disclosing Party may designate information disclosed by it during a deposition or in response to written discovery as "Confidential" or "Highly Confidential Counsel Only" by so indicating in said responses or on the record at the deposition. Additionally a party may designate in writing, within 21 days after receipt of said responses or of the deposition transcript for which the designation is proposed, the specific pages of the transcript and/or specific responses that are "Confidential" or "Highly Confidential Counsel Only." Any party may object to such proposal, in writing or on the record. Upon such objection, the parties shall follow the procedures described in Paragraph 14 below. Unless otherwise designated during the deposition, deposition transcripts shall be treated in their entirety as "Highly Confidential Counsel Only" Information for 21 days after receipt. All parties shall affix the relevant legend required by paragraphs 7 and/or 8 of this Order on each page of the deposition transcript designated "Confidential" or "Highly Confidential Counsel Only" at the deposition or by subsequent written notice.
- as Confidential or Highly Confidential Counsel Only shall be without prejudice to any claim by the Disclosing Party that it is Confidential or Highly Confidential Counsel Only and shall not waive the Disclosing Party's right to secure protection under this Order for such material. In the event a Disclosing Party designates material as Confidential or Highly Confidential Counsel Only after it has been inadvertently disclosed, the receiving party will treat such material pursuant to the relevant designation pursuant to this Order and shall make arrangements with the Disclosing Party to have the Protected Information, including copies, marked "Confidential" or "Highly Confidential Counsel Only."
- 11. If it comes to a Disclosing Party's attention that information or items that it designated for protection do not qualify for protection, the Disclosing Party must promptly notify all other parties that it is withdrawing the designation.

PERMISSIBLE DISCLOSURES

- 12. Confidential Information that is designated as such in accordance with the terms of this Protective Order shall not be disclosed to any person other than the following, and only to the extent necessary to litigate these actions:
- a. counsel for the respective parties to this litigation, including in-house counsel and co-counsel retained for these actions;
 - b. employees of such counsel, including a party's in-house legal staff;
- c. plaintiffs, or any officer or employee of a party, to the extent deemed necessary by counsel for the prosecution or defense of these actions;
- d. consultants or expert witnesses retained for the prosecution or defense of these actions, provided that each such person shall execute a copy of the certification annexed to this Protective Order as Exhibit A before being shown or given any Confidential Information;
- e. the original author, addressees, or recipients of the Confidential Information;
 - f. the Court, court personnel and court reporters; and
- g. witnesses (other than persons described in Paragraph 12(d)) who testify at deposition or at trial, provided that such witnesses shall execute a copy of the certification annexed to this Protective Order as Exhibit A before being shown or given any Confidential Information; and
- h. persons or entities that provide litigation support services (e.g., photocopying; videotaping; translating; preparing exhibits or demonstrations; organizing, storing, retrieving data in any form or medium; etc.) and their employees and subcontractors, provided that such persons or entities shall execute a copy of the certification annexed to this Protective Order as Exhibit A before being shown or given any Confidential Information.
- 13. Highly Confidential Counsel Only Information that is designated as such in accordance with the terms of this Protective Order shall not be disclosed to any person other than the following, and only to the extent necessary to litigate these actions:
 - a. counsel for the respective parties to this litigation, including in-house

- b. employees of such counsel, including a party's in-house legal staff;
- consultants or expert witnesses retained for the prosecution or defense of c. these actions, provided that each such person shall execute a copy of the certification annexed to this Protective Order as Exhibit A before being shown or given any Highly Confidential - Counsel Only Information;
- d. the original author, addressees, or recipients of the Highly Confidential -Counsel Only Information;
 - the Court, court personnel and court reporters; e.
- f. persons or entities that provide litigation support services (e.g., photocopying; videotaping; translating; preparing exhibits or demonstrations; organizing, storing, retrieving data in any form or medium; etc.) and their employees and subcontractors, provided that such persons or entities shall execute a copy of the certification annexed to this Protective Order as Exhibit A before being shown or given any Confidential Information; and
- witnesses (other than persons described in Paragraph 13(c)) who testify at g. deposition or at trial, provided that (1) the Receiving Party has a good faith belief that such witness previously had access to or otherwise had obtained knowledge of the Highly Confidential - Counsel Only Information; and (2) such witnesses shall execute a copy of the certification annexed to this Protective Order as Exhibit A before being shown or given any Highly Confidential - Counsel Only Information.

RESOLVING DISPUTED CLASSIFICATIONS

- 14. Should a party wish to object to a Confidential or Highly Confidential - Counsel Only designation of any material, that party shall make a written Designation Objection to the Disclosing Party, as set forth below:
- Designation Objection: The objecting party shall identify with specificity a. (i.e., by document control numbers, deposition transcript page and line reference, or other means sufficient to locate such materials) each document bearing a disputed Confidential or Highly Confidential - Counsel Only designation. A Designation Objection will trigger an obligation on the part of the Disclosing Party to make a good faith determination of whether the disputed designation(s) is entitled to be treated as Confidential Information or Highly Confidential – Counsel Only Information pursuant to the terms of this Protective Order. Within ten (10) court days the Disclosing Party shall respond in writing to the Designation Objection either agreeing to remove the disputed designation(s) or stating the Disclosing Party's refusal to do so. During that period, the parties will meet and confer in good faith.

- b. Court Determination: If the Disclosing Party refuses to agree to remove the Confidential or Highly Confidential Counsel Only designation pursuant to subsection (a) above, the Objecting Party may make a written application to the Court to remove the protective treatment in compliance with applicable court rules and orders. The application will be made within ten (10) court days of receiving the Disclosing Party's refusal to remove the disputed designation(s). In any judicial proceeding challenging a Confidential or Highly Confidential Counsel Only designation, the burden of persuasion with respect to the propriety of the designation shall remain upon the Disclosing Party. If the Objecting Party fails to make such timely application, the Disclosing Party's designation will remain in effect.
- c. Pending a ruling, all parties shall continue to treat the information subject to the Designation Objection pursuant to the disputed designation under the terms of this Protective Order.

PROTECTED INFORMATION AT TRIAL

15. The terms of this Protective Order do not preclude, limit, restrict or otherwise apply to the use of documents at trial. Subject to the Federal Rules of Evidence, Protected Information may be offered at any court hearing (including trial) provided that the offering party confers in good faith with the Disclosing Party (and, if the Disclosing Party is not a party to these actions, a representative of the offering party's opposing parties (hereinafter together the "Affected Parties")) over the proposed use of that information five days prior to the anticipated use. If it is not practicable for the offering party to provide the Affected Parties with five days' notice, the offering party must provide the Affected Parties with as much notice as practicable. Regardless of the notice provided, the offering party must take all reasonable steps to ensure that the Affected

Parties are provided a meaningful opportunity to be heard by the Court regarding the proposed use of Protected Information at any court hearing or trial, and may not offer such information until the Affected Parties have been given an opportunity to provide an objection on the record.

16. Any party or interested non-party may move the Court for an order that the evidence be received in camera or under other conditions to prevent unnecessary disclosure. That court will then determine whether the proffered evidence should continue to be treated as either Confidential Information or Highly Confidential – Counsel Only Information and, if so, what protection, if any, may be afforded to such information at the trial.

PROTECTED INFORMATION SUBPOENAED OR ORDERED PRODUCED IN OTHER LITIGATION

If at any time any Protected Information is subpoenaed by a court, administrative or 17. legislative body, or by any other person or entity purporting to have authority to require the production of such information, the person to whom the subpoena is directed shall give written notice thereof to the Disclosing Party as soon as reasonably practicable but in no event more than five (5) days after receipt of the subpoena. After receipt of the notice specified under this paragraph, the Disclosing Party shall have the sole responsibility for obtaining any order it believes necessary to prevent disclosure of the Protected Information that has been subpoenaed. If the Disclosing Party does not move for or obtain a court order prohibiting such production or disclosure within the time allowed for production by the subpoena (or within such time as a court may direct or as may be agreed upon between the Disclosing Party and the subpoenaing party) and give written notice of such motion to the subpoenaing party and the person to whom the subpoena is directed, the person to whom the subpoena is directed may commence production in response thereto. The person to whom the subpoena is directed shall not produce any Protected Information while a motion for a protective order brought pursuant to this paragraph is pending or while any appeal from or request for appellate review of such motion is pending, unless ordered by a court to do so.

NON-TERMINATION

- 19. All provisions of this Protective Order restricting the communication or use of Protected Information shall continue to be binding after the conclusion of this action unless otherwise agreed or ordered. In addition, the court retains jurisdiction to resolve any dispute concerning the disclosure of Protected Information in violation of the terms of this Order, unless otherwise agreed or ordered.
- 20. Unless otherwise ordered or agreed to in writing by the Disclosing Party, within sixty (60) days after the final termination of this litigation by settlement or exhaustion of all appeals all parties in receipt of Protected Information shall use reasonable efforts to either return such materials and copies thereof to the Disclosing Party or destroy such Protected Information and certify that fact. The Receiving Party's reasonable efforts shall not require the return or destruction of Protected Information that (i) is stored on backup storage media made in accordance with regular data backup procedures for disaster recovery purposes, (ii) is located in the email archive system or archived electronic files of departed employees, or (iii) is subject to legal hold obligations. Backup storage media will not be restored for purposes of returning or certifying destruction of Protected Information, but such retained information shall continue to be treated in accordance with the Order. Counsel for the parties shall be entitled to retain copies of court papers (and exhibits thereto), correspondence, pleadings, deposition and trial transcripts (and exhibits thereto), expert reports and attorney work product that contain or refer to Protected Information, provided that such counsel and employees of such counsel shall not disclose such Protected Information to any person, except pursuant to court order.

21. Nothing in this Order shall be interpreted in a manner that would violate any applicable canons of ethics or codes of professional responsibility.

MODIFICATION PERMITTED

22. Nothing in this Protective Order shall prevent any party or other person from seeking modification of this Protective Order or from objecting to discovery that it believes to be otherwise improper.

RESPONSIBILITY OF ATTORNEYS

- 23. The counsel for the parties are responsible for employing reasonable measures, consistent with this Protective Order, to control duplication of, access to, and distribution of copies of Protected Information.
- 24. The counsel for the parties are responsible for administering and keeping the executed original copy of Exhibit A pursuant to ¶¶ 12(d), 12(g), 12(h), 13(c), 13(f) and 13(g) above.

NO WAIVER

- 25. Nothing herein shall be deemed to waive any applicable privilege or work product protection or to affect the ability of a party to seek relief for an inadvertent disclosure of material protected by privilege or work product protection. Pursuant to the Court's authority under Federal Rule of Evidence 502 and any other applicable law, rule, or legal principal, the inadvertent production of documents or information subject to the attorney-client privilege or work-product immunity shall not waive the privilege or immunity if a request for the return of such documents or information is made promptly after the Disclosing Party learns of its inadvertent production.
- Nothing contained in this Protective Order and no action taken pursuant to it shall 26. prejudice the right of any party to contest the alleged relevancy, admissibility or discoverability of the confidential documents and information sought.

IT IS SO STIPULATED.
