Opportunities for Faculty to Support First Generation Students

The Kent State I AM FIRST initiative supports First Generation students, faculty, and staff programming, including the new Faculty Connections, a space to enhance student-faculty relationships among first-generation students to increase their sense of belonging and ability to navigate the complexities of the university. To participate in Faculty Connections for Fall 2022, complete this form. Also, please don’t forget to submit your nominations for the I AM FIRST First Generation Awards for students, alumni, faculty, and staff here.

The Teaching Recognition Awards Program recognizes actions that enhance teaching and learning at Kent State University. The program allows instructors to earn tiered awards (bronze, silver, gold & platinum) for their efforts to learn about, implement, evaluate and investigate evidence-based instructional practices. All instructors at Kent State, including graduate students and faculty of all appointment types (TT, NTT, adjunct) are eligible to participate.

Congratulations to all award recipients!

Bronze Award Recipients:
Reem Alsuhaibani
Zachary Morris

Platinum Award Recipient:
Daniela Popescu

Active Learning Classroom
Center for Visual Arts (CVA) 255

If you are looking for a flexible space that promotes active learning strategies, CVA255 will be available this spring for you to request.

Faculty Oasis

Are you looking for a place to be more mindful, read, work on a puzzle or talk with other faculty?

The Center for Teaching and Learning invites you to use the Faculty Oasis. You’ll find this little haven for you to enjoy just a few steps away from real-time support related to teaching and learning in 215 Cartwright Hall.
The Ohio College Teaching Consortium

The Ohio College Teaching Consortium was formed in 2020 as a cross-institutional effort to share professional development resources across all Ohio public institutions. It currently offers an Inclusive Teaching Endorsement and serves as a site for sharing workshops that are open to any Ohio faculty member.

If you would like to set your intention to pursue the Inclusive Teaching Endorsement, you can do so here.

If you would like to sign up for an upcoming workshop, you can find them here. (You are welcome to attend workshops whether or not you are pursuing the endorsement). The Kent State I Am First: Connections, Community, & Belonging for First Gen Students is included in the list of eligible events!

Equal Access Academy

There are many opportunities to learn more about student accessibility through the Equal Access Academy. These sessions include topics such as creating accessible courses and content, accessibility animals on campus and much more. For session descriptions and more information see here: https://www.kent.edu/equalaccess/equal-access-academy. To see current offerings and register to attend, access the HR training and development calendar here: www.kent.edu/hr/training/training-calendar
