Making Meaning of May 4
K-12 Teaching Plan

Name of Educator: Marianne Richardson

Educator’s Teaching Plan Number & Title: Project 3, “American Literature Unit”

Level of Students for Educator’s Teaching Plan: 9th grade

Subject Area for Educator’s Teaching Plan: English Language Arts

Educator’s State: Ohio

Description of Educator’s Teaching Plan: As part of a Black history and culture curriculum, students consider “law and order yesterday and today.” They study manifestations of law and order in the Civil Rights era; the Orangeburg, Kent State & Jackson State shootings; contemporary police shootings; and presidential policy. Students conclude work with thoughts about ways to bridge the underlying divides.

This educational teaching plan was developed during Kent State University’s Summer 2021 workshop titled Making Meaning of May 4: The 1970 Kent State Shootings in US History. The workshop was supported by Kent State and the National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH) grant program titled Landmarks of American History and Culture: Workshops for School Teachers.

This teaching plan is shared to promote understanding of the Kent State shootings on May 4, 1970; enhance humanities education across the disciplines; and illustrate the meaning of May 4 for today.

DISCUSS THE TWO STATEMENTS

General Del Corso quote AFTER students were killed and wounded by his National Guard units

“They’re going to have to find out what law & order is all about.”

Scranton Commission President’s Commission on Campus Unrest Conclusion

“The indiscriminate firing of rifles into a crowd of students and the deaths that followed were unnecessary, unwarranted, and inexcusable . . . Even if the guardsmen faced danger, it was not a danger that called for lethal force. The 61 shots by 28 guardsmen certainly cannot be justified.”
