Making Meaning of May 4
K-12 Teaching Plan

Name of Educator: Stephen Wright

Educator’s Teaching Plan Number & Title: Project 60, “Vietnam Inquiry”

Level of Students for Educator’s Teaching Plan: 11-12 grade

Subject Area for Educator’s Teaching Plan: American History 1877- present

Educator’s State: North Carolina

Description of Educator’s Teaching Plan: Stances on the Vietnam War—including MLK’s and Muhammad Ali’s—and the war’s impact on Americans, illustrated by draft lottery, The Things They Carried, the cost in lives, iconic war photos spurring protest, and May 4. Students reflect on how they would have responded.

This educational teaching plan was developed during Kent State University’s Summer 2021 workshop titled Making Meaning of May 4: The 1970 Kent State Shootings in US History. The workshop was supported by Kent State and the National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH) grant program titled Landmarks of American History and Culture: Workshops for School Teachers.

This teaching plan is shared to promote understanding of the Kent State shootings on May 4, 1970; enhance humanities education across the disciplines; and illustrate the meaning of May 4 for today.

Questions: Summarize the reasons that the American government and American citizens supported fighting a war in Vietnam.

What would you do? Based on reasons you summarized, as the war began do you believe you would have been a hawk or a dove? What reasons must convince you to choose your side?
The Draftee (Potential Draftee)

Question: At the start of the war, what were some ways you could avoid going to Vietnam?

Background: Eventually a draft lottery was introduced. Each day on the calendar was placed on a ping-pong ball and the numbers were pulled. In 1969, 366 dates were used to determine the order of young men being drafted. Eventually the first 195 men would be called. Men whose birthdays were pulled after this number would not have to go. They repeated the process the next year for men born one year later.

Questions:
1. What do you think was the purpose of going to a lottery based draft system?
2. Do you think this is a fair way to draft people for war?
3. Use the draft selector - https://www.usatoday.com/vietnam-war/draft-picker/ --- What was your birthday and would you have had to go? (number above or below 195)
4. Find your own sources: Select either President Joe Biden or Donald Trump. What were their experiences during the Vietnam war era and how did they avoid service in the war?
5. How do you think the Draft Lottery impacted those that were not selected? As protests escalated, Do you think the government may have had more motivations than just making the draft more fair?
Overview --- This selection is about a young man that is drafted. The chapter is about his decision making process and his decision whether to go to Vietnam or “dodge” the draft by escaping to Canada.

Questions:
What did O’Brien think about the war while he was a college student?

Why is O’Brien hesitant to flee to Canada?

What role does Elroy Berdahl play in the story?

What is O’Brien’s ultimate decision about going to the war or going to Canada?

Why did he make his decision?

Summary Questions:  What did you think about O’Brien’s decision? What do you think you would have done?
Based on the video, answer the following questions.

1. What were some of the challenges for soldiers during Search & Destroy Missions?

2. What were some of the challenges when fighting an enemy that used a guerilla style of warfare?

Assignment: Go to the Virtual Wall website. Click on By State/City. Click on Your Home State. Scroll through the deaths from your state (alphabetized by city) Find people from your town or a nearby town and then click “See Full Profile” to find and fill out the details below.

58,000 Americans died in the Vietnam War. Most were killed by the enemy, but others died from heart attacks & car wrecks. If you died in the country, you are on the wall.

The Virtual Wall often provides photos, hometown, age, time in the country, and cause of death.
