

Jessica H. Vargo, '89 BBA Accounting
Assistant Treasurer

Jessica Vargo has been appointed the Chief Financial Officer for the KSU Foundation effective January 3, 2017. Jessica comes to us from the East Ohio Conference of The United Methodist Church where she served as Chief Financial Officer and Director of Administrative Services for 14 years. As CFO, she was responsible for overseeing the operating budget, investment portfolio, property management as well as organizing and raising funds for the UM denomination. In addition, she has worked 13 years as a CPA both as a sole proprietor and partner of a local accounting firm. Jessica received her bachelor's degree in Accounting from Kent State and is a licensed CPA.

Jessica and her husband, Matthew, live in Copley, Ohio.