Kent State University
Disc Golf Course Guidelines

- Course hours are dawn until dusk daily.
- Players participate at their own risk and are responsible for harm to person or property.
- Walk on mowed grass areas where possible to reduce erosion.
- Only cross the street at a stop sign or designated cross walk.
- Help protect the course by not altering any of the vegetation and properly disposing of trash.
- No glass containers, alcohol, or illegal substances in the course areas.
- No unauthorized motorvehicles on trails or in course areas.
- Be courteous to other users.
- Play is first come, first served.
- Kent State University staff-led programs take priority to open play.

Guidelines You Should Know

- A player may not break, bend, or hold back any part of a tree or vegetation in order to make room for their throwing motion or their path to the basket. The rules require you to take the “least invasive” stance behind your disc.

- Littering of any kind is a courtesy violation and a 1-stroke penalty.

For more details on general disc golf rules, refer to the Professional Disc Golf Association at www.pdga.com.

*Please be mindful of poison ivy, mosquitos and ticks while navigating the course.

DISC GOLF INSTRUCTIONS

- Do not throw until other players are safely out of range, take care of the equipment and let faster groups “play through.”
- Begin playing each hole by teeing off from the concrete tee pad, and release your throw with both feet behind the forward edge of the pad.
- All other throws are made from the forward edge where your disc comes to rest.
- Players in groups throw one at a time. The player whose disc is furthest from the basket throws next.
- Course hours are 5 a.m. until 10 p.m. daily.
- Players participate at their own risk and are responsible for harm to person or property.
- Walk on mowed grass areas where possible to reduce erosion.
- Only cross the street at a stop sign or designated crosswalk.
- Help protect the course by not altering any of the vegetation and properly disposing of trash.
- No glass containers, alcohol, or illegal substances in the course areas.
- No unauthorized motor vehicles on trails or in course areas.
- Be courteous to other users.
- Play is first come, first served.
- Kent State University staff-led programs take priority to open play.

The object of the game is to play the entire course in the fewest number of throws of a disc.
