Research Groups

- 2022—present American Networks of Spanish Architecture: Academia, profession and dissemination (1976—2006). This subproject is part of the coordinated project RETRANSLATES and it aims at analyzing the international networks that connected Spanish architecture with the Americas from 1976 to 2006. Primary Investigators: Ana Esteban Maluenda and Marta García Carbonero (both at Universidad Politécnica de Madrid). Funded by Spain’s Ministry of Science and Innovation, 49,272 euros. My role on this team is to research and publish on relationships between Spanish architects and the United States.
