

Description of Sample of Written Work-
School Psychology

When selecting sample of written work as part of required application materials, please note that program faculty are most interested in reviewing a paper/writing sample related to the education and/or development of school-aged children. The paper should reflect a topic related to the field(s) of education and/or psychology. This might be a paper written for a previous course, an original research project summary, or some other original writing.